3. The beneficiaries are advised to visit the vaccination centre as per the time slot allotted to them in the above revised schedule. The token number to the beneficiaries will, however, be issued on first come first serve basis.

4. The beneficiaries who find it difficult to register themselves on Cowin website www.cowin.gov.in or ArogyaSetu app will be assisted by the registration team available at the vaccination centre. In case of overcrowding on a particular session, the beneficiaries may visit the vaccination centre in the next session of the day or next day as per their convenience. They may also call on Extn. No: 7044 to check the crowd at the vaccination centre so as to avoid overcrowding and reduce their waiting time at the vaccination centre.

5. Notwithstanding the time slots allotted to the beneficiaries, if any beneficiary is pre-occupied on account of any work, she/he can confirm the time slot from the persons available at the Extn No: 7044 and visit the Vaccination centre as per the time slot allotted to her/him.

6. This is issued with the approval of Director, RRCAT.
